Pride comes ALIVE

On November 3, 1978, the Bulldog Pride came alive with exciting Homecoming festivities. Blue and White Day brought out all sorts of "wild and crazy" costumes. Ted Ernst and Lisa Horn won the prizes for best-dressed seniors; Lynne Zellner and Tammy Parsons won the juniors' award; Nancy Minnich and Liz Williams dressed best in the sophomore class; and freshmen Cindy Schrader and Brian Schweitzer started the tradition for freshmen. Lead by the cheerleaders, the student body cheered on the Bulldog team, while Coach Snell introduced the graduating football players. Enthusiasm spread through SHS with cheers, skits, and bandfront drills as "clowning" Miss Jacobs and Larry Williams introduced guest stars Mike Galio and Jeff Jones, recent SHS grads. Although the Bulldogs lost to the Northwestern Tigers, our team's pride and spirit still "rode high."

After a prolonged drum roll, the 1979 Homecoming Court was announced: Rose Yesik escorted by Dave Harding, Monica Kaul by Don Berger, Jenny Farber by Charles Paine, Becky Moyer by Duane Beers, & the queen Suzy Jones escorted by Darryl Herman.

We interrupt this program to bring you this S.H.S. special news bulletin.

Pride, determination, and hard work are just a few ways to describe the S.H.S. Marching Band. After many hours of long, hard practices the band was ready to take their show to the field. The show consisted of a medley of sailor tunes and a salute to Brahms. The band performed their music well, while the bandfront added zest to the show with dances and varied formations. The band performed at many competitions, football games and parades. The band also competed at the Atlantic Coast Championship.

This year the band is looking forward to their biggest trip ever. In May the band will be headed for Florida to march in the Main Street Parade in Disney World. The band is working hard to prepare for the trip by having many fund raisers. The band owes much thanks to Band Director, Mr. Fennell, the Band Boosters and Bandfront Instructors who helped make the trip possible.

This has been a S.H.S. special news bulletin, film at 11.

We now return you to your regularly scheduled program already in progress.

Concert Band

Staging another successful Broadway review for the annual Spring Concert, the SHS chorus under the direction of Larry Williams, proved again that its members are truly fine performers. Ten of the most outstanding singers were selected for County Chorus: Dennis Peters, John Ortiz, Kathy Kistler, Cathy Roth, Charlene Snyder, Lenny Bechtel, Suzette Nanovic, Steve Ruch, Chris Cunfer, ZoeAnne Rex, and accompaniest Colleen Peters. Of these, Cathy Roth, Steve Ruch, and ZoeAnne Rex were chosen to participate in the District Chorus Festival. Traveling to various churches and local organizations, the Youth Choir, made up of the most dedicated members of the chorus, gained recognition. ZoeAnne Rex was the deserving recipient of the annual school choral award.

Several Senior members of the band received awards as well. Michael Peters captured both the John Philip Sousa and the Jazz Band awards, and Carol Krause received the Eckert Brothers award, reflecting a high degree of improvement

SCHOLASTIC SCRIMMAGE

GERMAN DECLAMATION

DEBATE

Slatington High School students compete in many places besides the athletic field, proving they can compete in the classroom and behind the lectern as well as on the basketball court or the football field.

Under the direction of Mrs. Roeder, the Scholastic Scrimmage team of Chris Cunfer, Tom Staskowski, Warren Bell, and Mike Rau compiled a fine record, topping two area high schools before losing to the eventual champions from Allen High School.

SHS students used their mouths as well as their head in interscholastic competition. Michelle Lorah (opposite page, lower left) and Michael Peters attended the German Declamation contest held at Moravian College, and Michelle finished fifth. In the Voice of Democracy competition, Suzette Nanovic finished first in the school competition, followed by Gwyn Smith and Tammy Parsons. Suzette went on to capture a 3rd place in the V.F.W. district competition.

Under the direction of Mr. Canning (left), the National Honor Society inducted many new members at its assembly, and also initiated a tutoring program.

SLATE

Slatington, Pennsylvania 1978 - 79

SLATE soars to success

SLATE Advisor - Edith M. Roeder

Ads, ads, and more ads was SLATE's only hope this year to battle its failing finances. Under Editor Heather MacCrindle and business manager Mary Bechtel SLATE staffers canvassed Slatington ringing up money. For the first time SLATE began to look like a real newspaper.

Another new tradition was started when SLATE was given to every student at SHS and distributed throughout the community. By the time Suzette Nanovic became Editor in January, SLATE had become a household item. Highlighting school activities like the musical, Prom, and Student Council elections, SLATE is best remembered for its annual Senior Slate, honoring the graduating class of '79.

Editor Suzette Nanovic and Lenny Bechtel publish their first SLATE.

Students often talk about the problems of their school, but how often is something done? Thanks to Dr. Sharkan and the newly created Student Advisory Council, something was done this year! Thanks to the SAC, there have been many changes in the school menu. Students were also involved in the planning for our new high school.

Under the direction of Mr. Horvath, the Future Business Leaders of America found out about the "real world" from various guest speakers at their regular Friday meetings. They also found time to plan and take a June field trip to New York City.

1) Paula Snyder gets a different view during our taped performance. 2) Captain Lori Clause concentrates hard. 3)Tammy, "Blue Magic's wizard", does her thing. 4) Tanya Evans and Tammy Parsons, horsing around as usual.

This year Winterguard displayed their talents by marching to "MacArthur Park", "Robots", and their theme, "You Make Me Believe in Magic".

Blue Magic took 1st place this year for the first time ever in the brief three-year history of Winterguard at S.H.S. In addition to their 1st place, Blue Magic placed 2nd at many other competitions.

In April, Blue Magic traveled to Wildwood to compete in the Atlantic Coast Winterguard Championships. The guard also marched at the Whitehall Mall and performed at Channel 39.

Precise marching, discipline and much enthusiasm has contributed to Blue Magic's success.

Centered around the Amish folk in Pennsylvania Dutch country, Plain and Fancy deals with two traveling New Yorkers. While attempting to sell a piece of property, they encounter the quaint customs and stern morals of these people. Donning an accent posed no problem for most of the cast members, since many of them have been exposed to the Pennsylvania Dutch influence all their lives. With the aid of the production staff, the orchestra, and the scenery, stage, and makeup committees, it was "plain" to see that the show was a great success!

The Plain and Fancy company: First row (L to R): Leads Cathy Roth, Dave Trollinger, Chris Cunfer, Lorraine Frey, Steve Ruch, Bob Parsons, Len Bechtel, Mark Ruch, Tom Staskowski, Lisa Neff, Kevin Byler. Missing: Suzette Nanovic. 2nd row: Chorus members Laurie Loch, Michelle Schuck, Tracy Millward, Sherri Torbey, Mary Beth Kern, ZoeAnn Rex, Cindy Meagher, Sharlene Hess, Liz Williams, Angela Felgueiras, Sue Cunfer, Kathy Kistler, Liz Edman. "I've never put on a Neil Simon play in which the set didn't fall apart," commented Larry Williams, director of the senior class play.

A few minor accidents had caused the set to fall apart. When Susan Jones, acting the lead of Corie, threw her shoe at the wall during one scene, a picture fell off the wall. When Chris Werley, who played the lead character of Paul, stumbled in the door carrying Michelle Lorah (Corie's mother), he knocked the screen covering the "kitchen," making it collapse with a crash to reveal to the laughing audience that the kitchen didn't actually exist.

Despite these memorable occurrences, the play went well as the curtains opened Saturday November 23 and 24. While Charles Paine, who played the telephone man, stood backstage rehearsing how to gasp for breath to make it seem like he had just climbed six flights of steps, David Harding made his cameo appearance as the delivery man with his long rehearsed line-"aargh!" Joe Bechtel also did a good job acting the slightly gay gourmet with an English accent.

STUDENT LIFE

Junior and Senior representatives. Top to bottom (L to R): Dave Harding, Barry Eckhart, Steff Bishop, Lynn Altrichter, Donna Gogel, Betsy Shiner, Charlie Paine, Pam Peters, Tami Herzog, Becky Moyer, Lori Clause, Kathy Kester, Donna Sommer, Carol Beil, Cindy Meagher. Sophomore and Freshmen representatives: Lisa Delong, Chris Yochimowitz, Tricia Martin, Nancy Minnich, Charlene Snyder, Angie Schleicher, Jane Rex, Kim Meinhart, Cathy Roth, Kim Albeck, Cindy Zellner, Debbie Reitz, April Evans, Lenny Bechtel, Cindy Schrader, Colleen Peters, Michele Torbey, Tim Roland.

1. Why didn't I think of that?
2. Waiting for the meeting to start.
3. Who, me?
4. A typical Student Council meeting.

Right from the start Student Council worked under the theme of "GO FOR IT." Their first goal was achieving a better relationship between students and teachers. They did this by giving a party for the incoming faculty and new superintendent, Dr. Sharkan. Their next objective was to "go for" a more suitable cafeteria menu. Council achieved this also; students are now being served tacos, pierogies, and even chocolate milk. Council's many efforts and many successes prove that if you "go for it," you'll get what you're after!

Mr. David Papay, Advisor

INVASION of the TALENT SNATCHERS

1) Our alien Mc's Barry Eckhart and Lenny Bechtel made the Talent Fashion show a success.
2) LeAnn Penberth shows that "It's not nice to fool with Mother Nature."
3) Chris Cunfer looks relaxed as she sings, "As time Goes By."
4) Cindi Muthard displays her talent in a creative scarf dance.
5) What's Suzy up to now?
6) John Ortiz and Lorraine Frey combined for a duet: "You Don't Bring Me Flowers."
7) Brothers Brian and Duane Hass breakdown with Bluegrass hits.
8) SHS Jazz Band drives through one of their many hits: "Soul Squeeze," "Clean It Up," "Proud Mary," and "Woodchoppers Ball."

It's a bird, it's a plane, Superman? No it's the "Invasion of the Talent Snatchers." Arriving from another planet and claiming to have a potion that will make anyone talented are MC's Lenny Bechtel and Barry Eckhart. After giving many students, some more than others, a sip of talent juice, the SHS 1979 Talent-Fashion Show was underway.
Many of our SHS students displayed their talents in comedy routines. Tammy Parsons, Betsy Shiner, Lynn Altrichter, Robin Beers, and Tanya Evans showed us the variety of toilet paper available. Becky Moyer, LeAnn Penberth, and Lisa Horn revealed to us just what Suzy Jones is really like.
Soloists in the show included Chris Cunfer, Zoeanne Rex, Kathy Kistler, and Suzette Nanovic. Mike Peters, Michelle Allesch, and Cindi Muthard also added solo routines.
SHS Youth Choir, Junior High Band-front, and the majorettes all entertained with their special talents.
Duets included Lorraine Frey and John Ortiz singing "You Don't Bring Me Flowers" and Brian and Duane Haas on banjo and guitar.
Other acts included the senior citizens and commercial breaks by Peter Nielson and the Youse-Yochimowitz team.
While Lenny and Barry ended up running out of juice, it was obvious that SHS is not running out of talent!

POTHOLES... FLOODS...

ALTHOUGH IT'S STILL WRAPPED IN MYSTERY, THE GREAT SHS FLOOD OF 1979 WAS ONE OF THE MORE MEMORABLE EVENTS OF THE SCHOOL YEAR. CLASSES WERE CANCELLED AFTER THIRD PERIOD.

MANY TEACHERS REACTED IMAGINATIVELY TO THE SITUATION. WHEN MRS. ROEDER RETURNED TO FIND HER CLASSROOM UNUSUALLY MOIST, SHE TOOK ADVANTAGE BY DISCUSSING WATER IMAGERY IN MACBETH. SEVERAL P.D. Slatington High students were treated to many interesting guest stars during the 1978-79 assembly season. In addition to the pictured performers, an excellent gymnastics team and a skateboarding squad put on two dynamic shows. Also, David Jardin returned to tell us more about his wilderness adventures and his "Indin" pals.

This year's student council was installed, and next year's student council officers sweated through their campaign speeches. Students were also treated to two full-length movies, "King Creole", starring The King himself, Elvis Presley, and "Freaky Friday", contributed by the magazine campaign. Other assemblies were the previews of "Plain and Fancy", "Barefoot in the Park", and the Talent-Fashion show. Overall, the guest spots of this year's Slatington High Live show were worthwhile breaks from regular programming.

Thank you Slatington ! ! !

for being my home this year. It has been a really educational year, and I have enjoyed it a lot. I am going to miss you all when I go home to Norway and continue my education there. Even though this year of school does not count as a school year for me, I have learned a lot at SHS. Don't think of SHS as a small school, because when I first came here I thought it was enormous. (My school at home has only about 150 students.)

I want to say especially thank you to my host families who helped make this year what it became for me. Slatington and SHS will always have a very special place in my heart, and maybe one day I will come back.

YOURS,

Åse Seffjord

Dedication

We, the class of 1979, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Larry Williams, whose guidance, understanding, and patience have helped many high school students throughout the years. A graduate of the class of 1975, Mr. Williams has lived in Slatington all his life and presently holds the position of administrative aide at his alma mater.

We will always remember Mr. Williams for his willingness to help others. As a friend, his attention and kindness are never-ending. As an aide, his efforts know no bounds. As a worker in the community and church affairs, his willing hand reaches out to all who seek it.

We will never forget the funny dance we were taught for the Junior Prom, or the strict discipline that was maintained during this year's Senior Class Play. But to us, his greatest contribution is simply his unselfish devotion to the school and its students.

We, therefore, dedicate a small part of our years at Slatington High to Mr. Larry Williams.

Larry Williams

BABWA WAWA SPWORTS

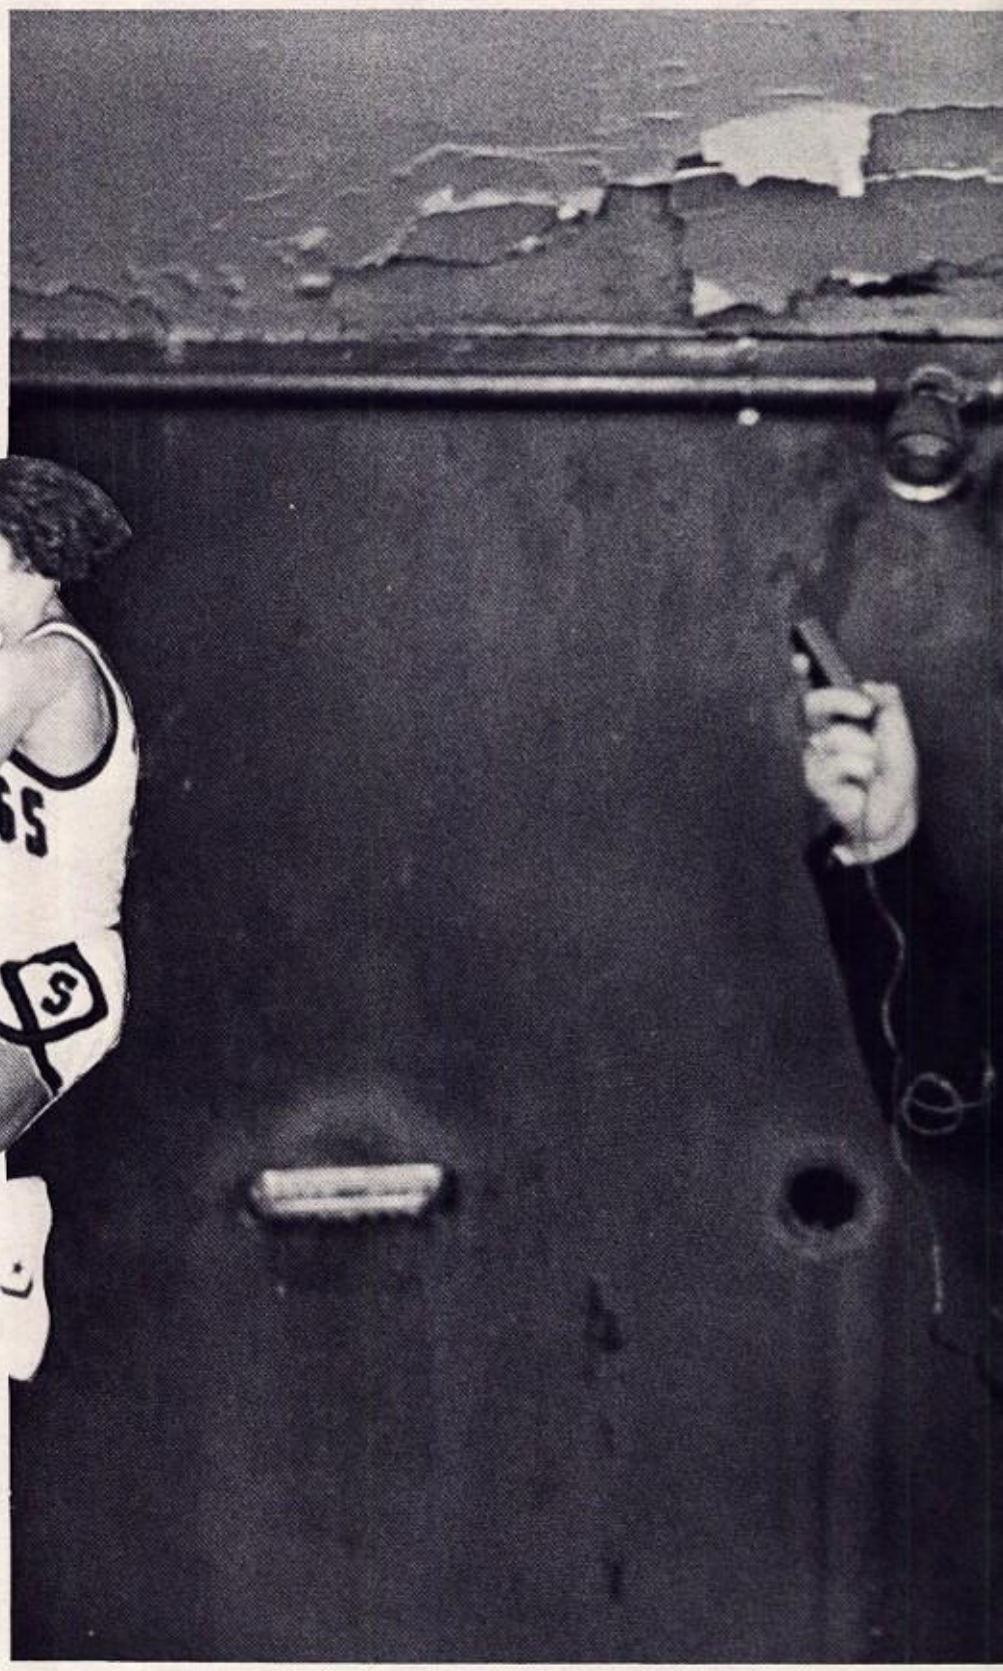
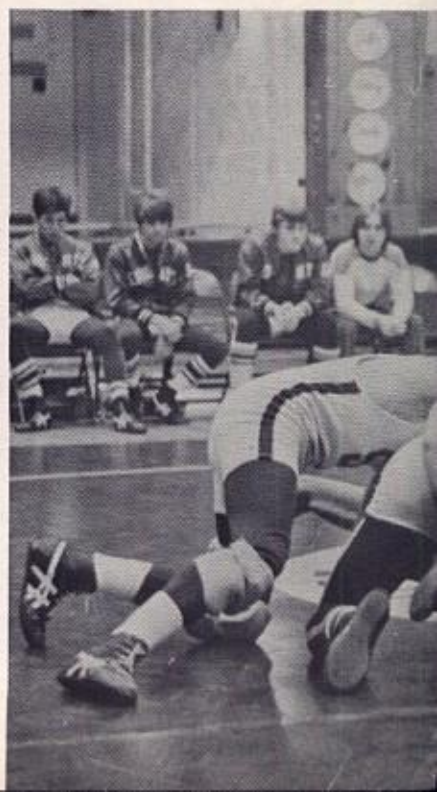
Helwo, this is Babwa Wawa from "Saturday Night Live" at Swatington High Schoow interviewing this year's spworts teams.

Throughout this schoow year I have interviewed the coaches and some of the outstanding spworts stars. To begin the spworts section I've decided to interview an all-knowing and all-seeing showerhead from Smith Hall. He has seen many spworts stars in their twiumph and their defeat.





Babwa: Mr. Showerhead, how has this years spworts season gone at S.H.S.?

Showerhead: Well, it has been a great season. All the teams have done very well, and the spworts stars and myself have gotten to know each other very, very well. It is great to hear the girls' basketball team sing, to listen to the teams after an outstanding game, and to help cleanse the bodies of all that disgusting sweat that they acquire while completing.

Babwa: What outstanding features did you notice on this years pwayers?

Showerhead: Physically they were all wonderful. Some were big, and some were not so big. Some were sexy, and some were not so sexy. But talent-wise they all have one important ingredient needed to succeed: Determination! These are the best and most deserving athletes that S.H.S. has produced in years!

Babwa: Mr. Showerhead, I have had a wonderful time interviewing you, and in concwusion I'd wike to say, "Why not come up and see me some time - I'd wike to twy to turn you on!"

VARSITY FOOTBALL

1. This is Babwa Wawa with head coach Wich Snewl discussing this year's Varsity football team.
2. Babwa: Mr. Snewl, what were your views on this year's Varsity team?
   Mr. Snell: This year's team was probably the youngest most inexperienced squad I ever coached. We knew that we would have our work cut out for us. Inexperience hurt us early in the season and injuries hurt us later.
3. Babwa: What was the best game you guys pwayed in this season?
   The team: Saucon Valley was the best and most satisfying game because we were 3 touchdown underdogs and they were the Colonial League champs.
4. Well, that just sums up this year's Varsity football team.

Babwa: Today I'm talking to the coach of the Swatington fweshmen squad Walph Wilwiams. Mr. Wilwiams, do this year's frosh show and notable talent which may be helpful in upcoming years?

Mr. Williams: Yes indeed! The team has a great number of fine athletes. If these players come out the rest of their high school careers, the JV and varsity squads will have a pretty bright future.

Babwa: What makes this year's team different from any other year?

Mr. Williams: The main reason that this team is special is the ability of key players. We have two good freshmen quarterbacks playing for the Frosh this year, John Bolton and Craig Sheffler. Our linemen are big and strong for their first year and Smokey Hunsicker and Butch Rauch are doing a great job in the backfield.

JV FOOTBALL

This year's junior varsity team, headed by Coach David Papay, exhibited the will to win, leadership, and teamwork, all which are necessities for a successful football team. The word "successful" basically describes the '78 JV team, finishing tied for second place in their league with a final record of 8 and 3.

Many promising varsity players are arising from JV ranks. Jeff Bachman, of the backfield, contributed largely to the team's running game. Quarterback, Randy Phillips, also proved to be a valuable player on the JV squad. The Roberts twins anchored the offensive line and will provide a solid foundation for the next two years.

Helwo Fiewd Hockey fans this is Babwa Wawa coming to you "wive" fwom Swatington High hockey fiewd on the last day of pwactice. I'm here talking to Coach Debbie Moyer and her varsity team, while they are perfowming their "Gwoss Name Cewemony."

Babwa Wawa: Giwls, what exactwy is the "Gwoss Name Ceremony?"

Members of team: On the last day of practice every Varsity player gets a "Gross Name" which they must wear the next day to school and to the last game.

Babwa Wawa: Why?

Members of team: Because it's a tradition. Everyone who gets a name must take a pledge.

Babwa Wawa: What are some of these "Gwoss Names?"

Members of team: Sir Gonad, Cellulite, Moose, Nose Hair, Flea Festation, Preparation H, and Coach Hemorrhoid are just some.

Babwa Wawa: Coach Moyew what was the most exciting game this yeaw?

Coach Moyer: It's got to be the Lehighton game. It was our first win, and we played under the lights.

Babwa Wawa: What are some of the wild and cwazy things the team did this year?

Coach Moyer: One time Parsons and Evans put a dead snake on the field while we were playing a game! And then there was the time Beers fell on a ball and moaned for an hour! A certain someone's underwear ripped at a scrimmage once, and we had to tape them to her body!

Babwa Wawa: What is your outlook for next year?

Coach Moyer: Very optimistic, we only lost three seniors.

Babwa Wawa: Girls, would you like to add anything?

Monica Kaul: I want everyone to remember the day we saw a flasher going to one of our games.

Babwa Wawa: I'll now sign off fwom the middle of the Swatington Hockey Fiewd as they begin the action. Oh no! I'm going nuts! I see this stwange small white object coming at me. This is Babwa Wawa repowting "wive" fwom SHS. Today I have with me the super-jock of Swatington High. What Renoir did for nude paintings, this man did for the Swatington cwoss countwy team. Wet's welcome Mr. Gwenn Wissmiller.

Babwa: Is it true that you coach the boys and girls cwoss countwy team at SHS? What was your record?

Mr. Rissmiller: Yes. The boys team went 11-0 this year and extended their winning streak to 21. The girls record was 0-7, but you have to remember that this is the first year we had an official girls team.

Babwa: What honors has your team received?

Mr. Rissmiller: The boys won the 1978 Centennial League for the second year running, came in second at Districts, and then went to States.

Babwa: Were you ever embawased by the boys or girls?

Mr. Rissmiller: The boys constantly embarrass me by their language and also when they "saw the moon on 309." Of course, the girls are very well-behaved and cause no need for embarrassment.

Babwa: A question has been bothering me wery much. Are you allowed into the girl's wocker woom?

Mr. Rissmiller: Why would I want to go in? Is there any difference between girls and boys?

Babwa: What was the exciting part of the season?

Mr. Rissmiller: We won. Often!

Babwa: Are you for woman's wib?

Mr. Rissmiller: I am for equal but separate opportunities.

COACH FREE: Our team was small and inexperienced, and we wrestled some very big schools like Whitehall and Northampton. A small team just can't get a winning spirit wrestling like that BABWA WAWA: What is your outwook for the future?

COACH FREE: The future looks dim unless we can get more people out. We have many weight classes where we have only one person or no one at all. If we could fill these places, our team would be much stronger. We do have a number of freshmen and sophomores who are looking good. If we can fill out the rest of the team, there is still a chance for a winning team in the future. We did have some successful members. Our best wrestler was probably Mark Schaller; he won the league championship, and probably had a good chance at the District title before he tore ligaments in his right knee during a practice session.

Helwo there, all you twack fans. This is Babwa Wawa coming your way fwom Swatington High School where I'm talking to Head Coach Marv Miller.

BABWA WAWA: Coach, Miller, what exactwy were the highwights of this year's boys' twack season?

COACH MILLER: Winning the Centennial League Championship, capturing the League Meet, and defending the Catty Relay title have to be the biggest highlights.

BABWA WAWA: Who were some of the important assets to this year's team?

COACH MILLER: Dave Harding, Steve Lackner, Barry Eckhart, Joe Bechtel, Duane Beers, Joe Hough, Darryl Herman, Scott Shaeffer, John Hunsicker, Greg Kester, Todd Messinger, Kenny Book, and Dale Beck are just a few.

BABWA WAWA: If you had anything to do over again this year, what would it be?

COACH MILLER: Well, to be honest, I would have made moves earlier, placing people in other events to find hidden talents.

BABWA WAWA: As I make my way to the bus, I sight the rest of the team and stop to ask the statisticians some questions. What were some of the strange things you saw, being a stat for all these men?

STATS: One time the guys started to throw someone's jock around. It almost landed in my hair. One time someone pulled his shorts and sweats off. Boy. did I see some flesh! Joe Hough really got the boys psyched up by singing "Your so easy," as all the boys chimed in.

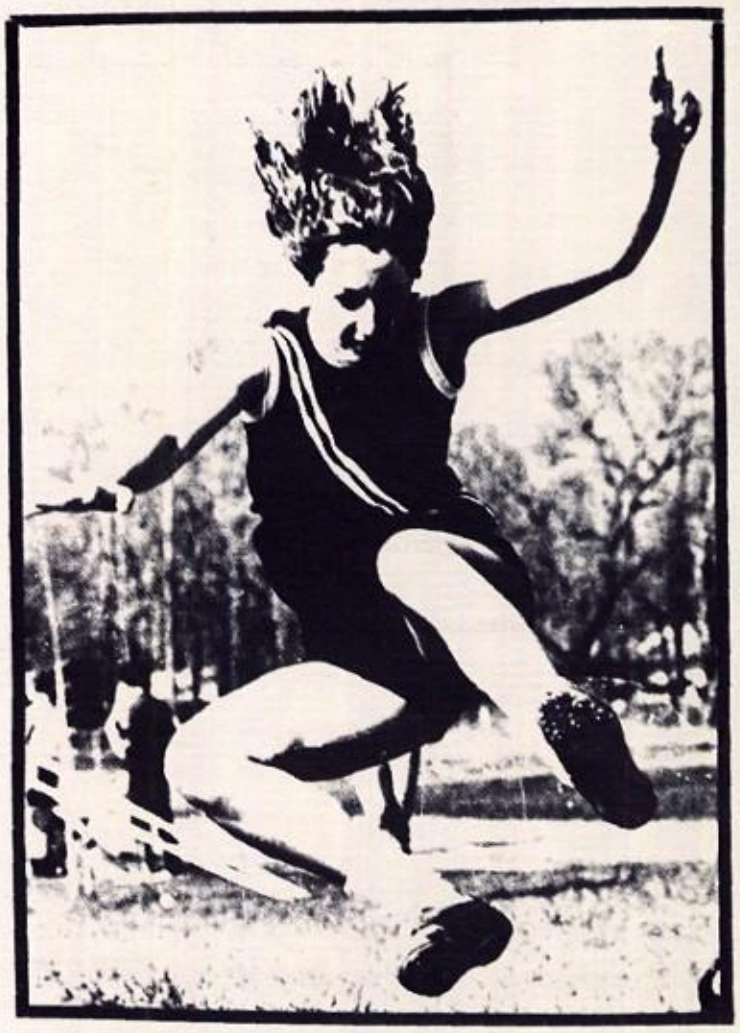
Coach Miller points out a jumper in action with Baba Wawa looking on.



Babwa Wawa: Coach, What is your overall opinion of this year's Girls team?
Coach Miller: For such a young team, they were surprisingly better than average. They lost many meets, but always hung in there close.
Babwa Wawa: Who do you think were the biggest assets to the team?
Coach Miller: Mainly Suzy Jones, but many others contributed; such as Betsy Shiner, Angela Scarselletti, Pam Peters, and Dawn Geiger. Still, it wasn't one person. It was the whole team.
Babwa Wawa: What were the biggest surprises? What were the biggest disappointments?
Coach Miller: I was surprised by the younger girls and their performances. I would have liked to see the girls win more meets.
Babwa Wawa: What is your outlook for next year's team?
Coach Miller: I think if they really work, they will be in the running for the Centennial League Championship.
Babwa Wawa: Thank you, Coach Miller.

'79 varsity team

Standing- Coach Prutzman, R. Kistler, A. Jordan, C. Newhard, S. Hunsicker, G. Blose, Coach Carazo. Kneeling- J. Shuey, C. Bauer, G. Smith, B. Reitz, J. Kester, Sitting- M. Jones, J. Wieand, D. Berger, D. Zellner, S. Martinez.

Babwa: Helwo, I'm tawking to the head coach of the Bulldowgs basebawl staff, Fwank Cawazo. Coach, what were your views on this year's varsity team.
Coach Carazo: They had the ability to be league champions, but they didn't want it bad enough. Near the end of the season they realized this and won many of their second-half games while fighting tough battles with the would-be league champions. Juniors Curt Bauer and Mike Jones along with senior Don Berger had excellent years. Don Berger, Steve Martinez, Jim Kester, and Barry Reitz displayed outstanding leadership.
Babwa: What about this year's JV team?
Coach Carazo: They didn't have a successful year due to the large number of starting, inexperienced freshmen, especially the pitching staff. Hopefully they will improve next year.

JV team: Standing: S. Bechtel, N. Horvath, P. Chiaradia, R. Gruber, R. Phillips, B. Pritchard, B. Kester, R. Gabovitz, B. Dotter, B. Waylen, Coach Parry. Kneeling: L. Walbert, J. Hadinger, D. Messinger, T. Krupa, T. Weaber, S. Farber, G. Chabak, J. Snyder, P. Bretz, G. Auman, B. Kistler. Sitting: E. Edman, J. Bechtel, J. Bolton, P. Campano, T. Hausman, S. Peters, T. Correll, M. Krupa.

SOFTBALL

Hello again, spworts fans! Babwa Wawa here with a guest you're sure to enjoy. Wet's have a wahm welcome for the SHS softball coach, Miss Moyer.

Babwa: How do you feel about this year's record? Embawassed?

Coach: Well, 1-16 is nothing to brag about. I'm not embarrassed, but disappointed and frustrated. But I am optimistic for next year.

Babwa: Why? It seems as though you should dread next year.

Coach: Next year we should see improvement. This year was experience. Also there were no seniors on the team, meaning most should return.

Babwa: Who were the most valuable players?

Coach: Actually there were two: Sara Handwerk and Mary Bechtel.

Babwa: I would like to pwobe into your subconscious. Tell me, what were your twue feelings about the team?

Coach: At times the players looked really sharp, but mostly they didn't play to their potential.

Babwa: Too bad, my condolences. What were some of the cwazy things they did?

Coach: Once Robin Beers bought 13 dollars worth of food for a scrimmage.

Babwa: What are your feelings on nuclear power?

Coach: Well, the radiation might have an effect on our aluminum bats.

Babwa: Thank you, Coach Moyer, for sharing your time with us for this valuable in-depth interview on the 1979 softball team.

EVERYTHING GETS CLEARER WHEN YOU STEP BACK AND TAKE A GOOD, LONG LOOK

And that's what "editorial" and "opinion" pages are for. Unlike any other part of the newspaper, the editorial page asks the questions, analyzes the positions and argues the points. Comment by local and national experts is augmented by views from readers who write "Letters to the Editor." And we print every letter we get, within our 300-word limit, no matter how controversial or critical of our papers.

The goal of our editorial policy is to stimulate your thinking and move you to action. They are one way we support the belief that many voices should be heard before decisions are made.

So step back and take a look. And let the editorial pages of the Lehigh Valley's largest and most important daily newspapers help you get a clearer look at the world.

Programming our entire school production are many important people whose actions are very necessary in order that things run smoothly. The administration and school board are the decision makers who PROGRAM every action for 180+ days.

Also working behind the scenes and seldom given credit for all they do are the STAGE CREW of guidance counselors, custodians, cafeteria workers, secretaries, teacher aides, librarian, and nurse.

The math and science teachers are responsible for providing us with the TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE we need for the 1980's and beyond.

Giving us basic information needed for survival in the business world and the world around us, the business and social studies teachers help us DESIGN THE SET on which we will perform.

Music, art, shop, home ec., driver ed., and gym are the diversities in our school day that LIGHT UP the paths to knowledge.

Skilled in the spoken language, the teachers working in language arts are our PROMPTERS to better communications.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY...

These pages represent the credits that come at the end of every TV program, the credits that go to those who created REFLECTIONS '79. These dedicated staff members, conceived layouts, wrote and typed articles, pasted headlines, solicited ads, and worked and reworked their pages, all trying to compress the school year into 160 meaningful and hopefully humorous pages.

Credit must also be given to our directors. David Ingmundson, our advisor, spent countless hours after school, criticizing everything. (The criticism was needed.) Rich Wachter, our Josten's Yearbook representative, helped us learn how to paste up pages, and helped us get the first 16-page color section done on time. Alex and the people from Davor Photo helped us get many of the candid and group shots used in this yearbook. They are responsible for many of the best pictures.

The yearbook staff dreamed up the theme, Slatington High Live, but you are the cast, the ones who really made this yearbook possible, the more than 700 actors who helped make the 1978-79 school year come "alive." Finally, all the credit must go to you.

Sincerely,
Heather MacCrindle
